TRESPASS AND DAMAGE TO THE ENVIRONMENT

A number of residents have reported instances of off road vehicles and motorcycles trespassing on land around Quatt, often resulting in damage to rights of way and adjoining land. Areas of the Dudmaston Estate have been affected particularly badly.

The problem seems to have become worse since the Lockdown has been imposed and it is believed that some of the groups of people involved have been in breach of Lockdown Regulations.

Shropshire Council, the National Trust and the Police have been working together to try and prevent these occurrences, without of course hindering those people who are enjoying the facility of the countryside in a lawful and responsible way.

If you witness any acts which you think are inappropriate, irresponsible or unlawful and you wish to report them, there are a number of contacts below who will be glad to receive any details and will try to take action against the culprits.

The National Trust Mr Peter Carty Tel. 07824 514564 or email peter.carty@nationaltrust.org.uk

Shropshire Council - outdoor.recreation@shropshire.gov.uk

The Police - telephone 101 (non emergencies) or 0800 555 111 (crimestoppers) or 999 (emergencies only)
